Meet Your Host ... Randy "Dr. Proactive" Gilbert

Meet The Show Host

Hi, I'm Randy Gilbert, a consultant, coach, and expert in the field of "Being Proactive" and I often go by the moniker "Dr. Proactive." I've been researching what it takes to be successful and you can benefit from what I've learned by reading the ezine I publish called Proactive Success: The True Pathway to Authentic Abundance.

I've also written a best-selling book, Success Bound: Breaking Free of Mediocrity and hundreds of other proactive success articles, reports, and products.

You can also become a Best Selling Author, by learning the strategy for selling lots of books. You'll find it at BestSellerMentoring.com

I firmly believe that "Success Starts on the Inside" with our thinking. I developed this radio show so you and I can learn from highly successful people (the most proactive people) as they share their Inside Success Secrets, Tips, and Strategies.

The word "Proactive" is fairly new (you won't find it in most hard cover dictionaries). The concept "Be Proactive" was identified by Stephen Covey as the First Habit of Highly Successful People. But Covey was like Ben Franklin and his contemporaries, who know about electricity, but didn't know how to use it. As Dr. Proactive, I want to be more like Thomas Edison, who came along and made tools, like the electric light bulb, motors, and generators, for using electricity. Like Edison, I intend to make success, abundance, and joy available to every man, women, and child by teaching them how to "Be Proactive" and use "Proactivator Tools™."

I love to speak and inspire people to "Be Proactive." If that is what you want for your employees or members of your organization, please give me a call 888-58-DR.PRO(ACTIVE) or click here to send me an email.
