→ MEGA Challenge Frequently Asked Questions ←

Q: "How do I know if I'm a 'Newbie' or 'Veteran' category entrant for this MEGA Challenge?"

A: Easy. If you've ever made $1 or more from ANY teleseminar, then you're considered a "Veteran." If you have not made $1 from teleseminars or haven't conducted a teleseminar, you're a "Newbie."

Q: "What does 'Most Improved' really mean and how will my MEGA Challenge Entry be judged?"

A: Great question! The term "Most Improved" does NOT refer to money. It simply refers to the reasons why you want to add teleseminars to your marketing mix. That's why it makes sense to clearly state the key purpose behind your MEGA Challenge teleseminar. To grow your list? To make more money? To avoid travel? To create an info product? Be specific, and limit it to only 250 words in your Essay.

Q: "Is the MEGA Challenge Teleseminar a call I do between now and the deadline (Jan. 16th, 2006)?"

A: Your MEGA Challenge submission is only valid if your Teleseminar is conducted between 12/14/05 and 1/16/06. It can be "free" or "fee-based" ... and the finalists will be chosen shortly thereafter.

Q: "How will MEGA Challenge winners be chosen from the finalists in each of the two Categories?"

A: Teleseminar Secrets™ students will vote for the winner in each category after listening to a 4-minute summary on a live tele-interview with Alex Mandossian. "Newbie" and "Veteran" MEGA Challenge winners will be the top vote-getters based on a tele-summary. (IMPORTANT: Any tele-finalist with a tele-summary that runs over the 4-minute time limit will be disqualified. No exceptions.)
